Inspired by the flavours of Tatton Park?

Continue your journey beyond the table and discover where it all begins. Wander through the beautiful Kitchen Garden to see the fruit and vegetables grown on-site, many of which are used in the dishes you've just enjoyed or are available to purchase in the Garden Shop. Or head out into the parkland and follow the Field to Fork trail, and discover how Tatton's landscape has supported food production past and present, and learn more about the park's commitment to sustainability.
